

European Export Customs and Operations Executive

This is a post for an immediate start

 Two years of experience in the Freight Forwarding Industry or similar required*

In a nutshell we need people who have good communication skills, a head for maths and IT, with a couple of years of experience in the Freight Forwarding Industry...

We've got a great team at Beckchoice, a dynamic and comfortable working environment and a real passion for what we do...

Salary range – £20,000-£30,000 p.a. variable according to ability and experience

This post is a great opportunity to join a dynamic force in the logistics sector at an exciting time in our development. We have fought our way through the terrible effects and demands of the Coronavirus pandemic and are currently tackling the new Brexit processes and procedures. We celebrated our 40th year of trading in 2019 and we have an excellent reputation in our industry...

We require a dedicated, self- motivated and go-ahead European Export Customs and Operations person for an office-based role that entails working as a key part of our successful team here in Tilbury. The successful candidate will be capable of good liaison with HMRC, our various customers, suppliers, and sub-contractors such as shipping lines, hauliers and depots. He/she will have the ability to maximise profitability, whenever the opportunity arises and to engage with our customers in order to grow their support.

Key Requirements

- Excellent verbal and written skills
- Maths and IT skills
- A working knowledge of the UK Customs Clearance process
- A good knowledge of CHIEF (soon to be replaced by CDS) & Destin8
- Well versed in Microsoft Office
- Good personal presentation and interpersonal skills are essential

This role would be suitable for someone with a quick brain, who knows how to make the right decision in sometimes difficult circumstances. We're looking forward to hearing from you very soon
