

Sales Support Executive

This is a post for an immediate start

* Two years of experience in the Freight Forwarding Industry or similar required

In a nutshell the successful candidate would have a proven successful track record of 2-3 years working for a small to medium sized freight forwarder, with experience of successfully quoting and securing import shipments (Air freight, Ocean freight, Road freight)

We've got a great team at Beckchoice, a dynamic and comfortable working environment and a real passion for what we do...

Salary range – £20,000-£30,000 p.a. variable according to ability and experience

We require a dedicated, self- motivated and go-ahead Sales Support person for an office-based role that entails working as a key part of our successful team here in Tilbury. The successful candidate will be capable of good liaison with our various customers, suppliers, overseas agents and sub-contractors such as shipping lines, hauliers and depots. He/she will have the ability to maximise profitability, whenever the opportunity arises and to engage with our customers in order to grow their support.

Key Requirements

- Excellent verbal and written skills
- Maths and IT skills
- A working knowledge of the UK Customs Clearance process
- A good knowledge of CHIEF (soon to be replaced by CDS) & Destin8
- Well versed in Microsoft Office
- Good personal presentation and interpersonal skills are essential

This role would be suitable for someone with a quick brain, who knows how to make the right decision in sometimes difficult circumstances. We're looking forward to hearing from you very soon.

Beckchoice is an equal opportunities employer